

THE ARTS CLUB

GENERAL INFORMATION

In the course of its life, the Arts Club has included among the various categories of its membership many of the most outstanding figures in the history of Art, Literature and Science. Writers such as Dickens, Swinburne, Mark Twain, Thomas Hughes, and the creator of Count Dracula, along with musicians such as Joachim, and actors such as Sir Henry Irving.

From weddings to meeting and exhibitions the arts club will guarantee an occasion to remember, the Arts Club is located in a fantastic area of London and it's main meeting room boasts views of the spectacular garden which can also be used to hosts fabulous summer parties.

The Arts Club is an excellent venue for wedding receptions, private parties, book launches or conferences. Its magnificent Staircase and landing with Corinthian pilasters and a fine dentilled cornice, picked out with gold leaf, the walled garden and elegant reception rooms make it one of the most exclusive venues in Central London, creating the atmosphere of a gracious private town house.
