

PUNK

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Breakfast Group is pleased to announce their latest venture in London's West End. This will be the first significant new late night venue to be launched in 2007 in the West End.

The name Punk reflects a venue that has taken West End nightlife in a new direction. This is not just another venue with a nondescript interior charging extortionate drink prices and playing funky house, R&B and 'eclectic beats'. Punk ushers in a more casual, hip policy that rebels against the establishment.

Punk mixes decadent furniture with oversized bespoke Mapplethorpe type flower prints! Look out for Sid illuminated from one of the backlit honeycomb columns as designed by Rock Galpin.

We've all heard of mashed-up music, Punk now brings you mashed-up entertainment! A permanent stage allows live music and cabaret to sit side by side with Guilty Pleasures.

Add to that a 4am licence, a 270 capacity, a Soho Square location and a launch in time for London Fashion Week... This could be Anarchy!
