

AVENUE RESTAURANT & BAR

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Avenue is a stunning restaurant & bar in the heart of St. James's in the West End of London. Designed by American architect Rick Mather, the Avenue opened in 1995 to great critical and architectural acclaim. That the Avenue has the 'wow' factor is hard to dispute, its big, bright and buzzy space makes it ideal for a private party. The restaurant is reached by walking through one of the longest and most stylish bars in London. The bar itself is gently under-lit providing a warm glow which leads you through into the dining room. On the left hand side there is a glass wine store which sits alongside a raised area (perfect for bands or guest speakers) and to the right there is a long banquette sitting beneath a long, luminous skylight. The main restaurant can seat up to 180 guests (150 with dancing) and restaurant & bar combined can easily accommodate 400 guests for a stand up event.

Restaurant:

Australian Chef Ivan Mather (formerly Subiaco, Perth WA) ensures the menu is progressive, modern European, serving fresh seasonal food, simply prepared and cooked. The seasonal emphasis of the cooking means that the menu changes regularly, although the most popular dishes remain throughout the year.

GROUP BOOKINGS AND EXCLUSIVE EVENTS:

The Avenue can be hired exclusively for breakfast, lunch, dinner or cocktails and canapés and menus adapted accordingly. Recent clients have been BBC, Chanel, David Morris, Thomas Pink and BNP Paribas.
