

The Criterion

Marco Pierre White

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Criterion Brassiere, situated in the heart of Piccadilly Circus, is elegant and breathtakingly beautiful. Owned by Marco Pierre White, this is the only neo-Byzantine restaurant in London. Glittering mosaics adorn the whole ceiling, while the walls are recessed with pillared arches decorated with motifs inspired by ancient Constantinople. The soft shimmering light conjures images of "The Arabian Nights", creating a romantic atmosphere in which to enjoy food of simplicity yet great quality. The menu is dominantly French with Mediterranean influences and allows exceptional food to be enjoyed in captivating surroundings.

EXCLUSIVE EVENTS:

SPRCIFICATIONS:

Capacities:	300	Standing
	180	Sit-down
	140	Sit-down dinner and dance

CATERING COSTS:

Canapés from	£28.00 per person
Set Lunch/Dinner from	£50.00 per person

The final bill will be subject to a 15% service charge.

DRINKS TARIFF:

House Champagne	£35.00	House Wine/per bottle (75cl)	£15.00
Beer	£2.95	50ml spirit & mixer from	£6.95
Cocktails from	£7.50

The final bill will be subject to a 15% service charge.

AVAILABILITY:

Monday - Sunday

LICENSE:

The Criterion is licensed to serve alcohol until 11.30pm or until 1am with a special extension

TRANSPORTATION:

Closest tube station – Piccadilly Circus. Nearest NCP Car Park – Denman Street

For all private hire enquiries, please contact:

Pure Consulting

T: 020 7851 8585 F: 020 7851 8588

info@pureconsult.co.uk

www.pureconsulting.net