

MIRABELLE

GENERAL INFORMATION

Mirabelle in London's Curzon Street has always been glamorous. This famous gastronomic address of the 1950's, that boasted a regular clientele including Princess Margaret, Princess Grace, Lord Althorp, and Liz Taylor, has been re-created, and is, once more, one of London's most sophisticated and sought after dining rooms. This is a sleek venue, where the menu is matched by a wine list of which dreams are made.

GROUP BOOKINGS AND EXCLUSIVE EVENTS:

Off the main bar are two completely different private rooms. The Pine Room, with its deep burgundy leather floor and pine panelling creates an intimate and 'clubby' atmosphere. In contrast The Chinese Room is adorned with hand painted silver and jade wallpaper that offers a unique glamour.
